“ I was a co-worker of Matt's at Emerson. I wish to express my condolences to his family. He was a very sweet man. We had our share of talks in the office. Casual and serious conversations. He was a strong man, but I also saw his vulnerable side. I tried to reach out to him in January. I would get short answers and a thank you. But I so enjoyed being around him. He loved his children and grandkids. He will forever be in my thoughts. So sorry for your loss.
