“ I think some of the best memory I have of you is you taking me to Biolife and stopping and having lunch or maybe getting some breakfast we always had a good time ,the waffle house was our favorite even though we tried many places. I'm going to miss fighting with you people thought we were married lol but we never let things like that cause any problems between our relationship even though that sounds funny but that's how we got along that's how we got close and that's when I'm going to miss love you sunshine
