“ I am a family member to him. he is my grandfather. i remember when you grandma and i would sit in the kitchen and talk about football. i remember when you would sit in your chair and greet me and my siblings with a wide loving smile you loved everyone of us and we all know it. i remember my 15th birthday and i went to give u a hug instead u shook my hand. you made me a man, a man that can live in your shadow along with my father. you were a great man and the world couldnt have asked anymore out of you. you were a man of god and are now safe in his kingdom with out grandmother. tell her i love her and i dearly love you.

“ To the the family of Ray Lee. As small children, I have fond memories of "Murray" (as we called him), his brother Donn, my sister Sandy, and me (Jerry) playing in the park across from where the Lee family lived in Rushsylvania, Ohio. Please accept my condolences during this difficult time. Cousin Jerry Frost.
