“ I am sorry for your loss. Many years ago, over 30, I was living next door to Hazel in the trailer court. I had a pet squirrel that got confused which trailer was home and ended up on the screen door of Mrs. Keiber. Ned opened the front door to leave from his mother's and their hung my squirrel on the screen door. He had told Mrs. Keiber, his mother, that there was a squirrel on her door. She just smiled and wasn't the least bit shook up and said oh thats Rosie's pet and called me. It sure surprised him when he opened that door. :)

“ My sincere sympathy in the loss of your loved one, Ned Keiber. I worked at Lima Technical College in a support position when Ned was an engineering professor. He was such a kind and friendly person to work with. I have thought about Ned many times through the years and was so sorry to see of his passing.
