“ I express my sincerest sympathy to the family of Norma Schroeder. She was a lovely woman. I always enjoyed my visits to her family's home in Wapokeneta. It was probably our longest drive we took regularly to visit relatives. She was the maid of honor, I think, in my parents' wedding. Warmest regards, Ginny and Jack Gajewski

“ Dear Schroeder Family, We were so sorry to here of Aunt Norm's passing. It's just so sad. Norm was always such a lovely person and she had that laugh that was so infectious. I remember the story so vividly of Norm making grandma's (Rose) first ever pair of slacks. At first Grandma wouldn't wear them, and then she wouldn't wear anything else - but she still wore a slip with her slacks. We laughed so hard about that. You all have such wonderful memories and you know that she's now with Jim. Our prayers and condolences are for Norm and your entire family. Mike, Theresa, and Ryan
