“ To Faye’s family, I am so incredibly sorry for your loss, we have lost a great soul who is so loved and will be so missed. I remember when I first started working with Faye at the BG Home Depot. They were so welcoming. I remember the deep conversations we would have and the advice they would give me. I saw them as an older sibling, someone I looked up to. I will never forget you, I’m sorry that we never hung out, I’m sorry that you were in pain. May we meet again in our next lives. Blessed be.

“ I worked with Faye at the Bowling Green, Ohio Home Depot. She was such a sweet person always smiling and willing to help out where ever she could. She helped me out a couple time with my Kids Workshop. Sorry you were taken at such a young age, its not fair, you were way to young, but glad you are no longer in pain. Fly high Faye you will be missed. Carol Wenig from Bowling Green, Ohio

“ When our daughter was diagnosed with type one diabetes when she was 8 years old, Sara and Faye were our angels. They helped us through some of the most difficult and scary times in our life. Faye taught Chloe all the tricks and was always there to encourage us. I don't think we would have made it through that first year without Sara and Faye. Faye was an angel on earth. Sending praying and love to the family.

I didn't know Faye too well. But I do remember seeing them around school. If I remember correctly they always had a small smile on their face when I waved. I'm sending HUGE condolences to the family and I know for a fact, they're an angel now watching over you

“It all started in first grade for us. I remember them coming up to me and asking “Do you want to be friends with me?”. I said yes, and we were close friends for many of our childhood years. I remember spending the night and watching tangled before bed many times. We also had the most fun playing Lego Wii games and eating goldfish together. There were also a few times I tagged along to Sara’s thirty-one parties and we both participated in the little games and in the set up and tear down process. I also recall when they got very sick and had to go to the children’s hospital. This turned out to be the start of their type 1 diabetes journey, I’ll never forget how anxious I was to know if they were gonna be okay. These are just a few of the memories that will always live on with me.

Furthermore, I would like to speak about them as a person. Faye was always so creative and they always had this spunk about them. They were very caring, smart, funny and outgoing. They were also so aggressively protective of their little brother Aiden. There was nothing they wouldn’t have done to keep him safe.

I hope these memories bring some comfort during this difficult time. I know Faye and I did not speak as adults but they were a very significant part of my childhood. I would have never thought we would end up here. I’m praying for their family and friends and sending Sara, Jake and Aiden the biggest hugs.

“ I remember when Austin had came over to my brother and Faye's apartment one night. We all sat on the couch and took turns playing Mario kart on the Nintendo switch. I also remember Faye always talking about how good of an artist Austin was, and I can dido that comment. She never talked badly about anybody, she was such a kind person. I'll miss you forever.
