“ Phyllis was a wonderful kind lady. While able, she called my brother-in-law, her cousin, Ray Sidey every day after my sister Carolynn passed away.

She shared her recipe for a cranberry, apple, Jello salad which people loved, even people who didn't like cranberries.

We will miss Phyllis.

S,

“ Phyllis, "Grandma Fid" as everyone knew her, Where do I start, She was such a sweet caring person who definitely made our life better just being in it, She will be missed dearly, from our every Thursday afternoon dinners together to the two phone calls a day just to let me know she was ok. She will forever hold a special place in my heart. And I am grateful for every memory We had with her.

“ Phyllis or as we called her “Grandma Fid” held a very special place in our Dad’s heart and so she did ours.

She was a big part of my childhood. I fondly recall many trips together, sleepovers and cooking lessons with her.

As an adult I would call her often for advice in the kitchen. Every recipe she would share would be measured by “handfuls, pinches, or just a bit.” Which I could never get just as good as hers. (Perhaps that was her strategy.)

She truly showed her love by cooking and if you were lucky enough to have some of her meals you felt it... My personal favorite was her strawberry freezer jam and fresh biscuits that were always just sitting on the counter for my visits.

Although her passing is hard, there is comfort knowing she’s with our Dad, Josephine & Pauline now too.
