“ Ray and Lovina were dear friends with my parents, Margaret and Chizzie King. They spent many wonderful times together traveling, playing cards and just visiting. I would always enjoy a quick vist with them whenever I would come home. Now there all together again and I can only imagine how glorious the heavenly reunion their having.

Love always,

Denny and Judy

“ Kathy & Mike,
With our deepest sympathy to you and your family. Ray was a dear friend and was 36 years old when we met Ray and Lovina. He will be missed and we were so glad to visit with him in July. My favorite memory of him was "Kay, take your social security at 62 and don't look back - You and Joyce enjoy yourselves while you have your health."
We have and we will never forget our friend, may he rest in peace.
With deepest sympathy, Kay and Joyce Barnes
