“ The "Ritter girls" were neighbors of mine as a child. As I aged and became an adult it never seemed that they aged. They are remembered with many fond memories. One of them is shopping at the greenhouse and flower shop every spring for their plants. Loved the sun hats they wore when they gardened. RIP

“ Regina touched so many lives. I first met her as a pre-school Sunday School student at St Paul. She was so kind. The Ritter Girls were a Wapakoneta legend and treasure. Rest in peace, dear Miss Ritter.
