“ Dear Rohrbaugh Family, I am so sorry to have read of your loss; please accept my sincere condolences. Something that I have personally found to be of great comfort are the thoughts expressed at John 5:28,29 as well as Revelation 21:4. In these verses we find a wonderful hope for the future of being reunited with our loved ones who now sleep, and this shall take place upon the earth the way it was originally intended - free from sickness, suffering, and death. Knowing this has always comforted me and it is my sincere hope that these thoughts comfort your family as well. Again I am so sorry for your loss. Rebekah

“ Please accept my sincere condolences over Rick's death. I am going out of town today and will not be able to attend his services tomorrow, but I wanted let you know that I knew him to be a dedicated law enforcement official who cared deeply for the community he served. He and you will be in my thoughts and prayers.

“ My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Rick was someone in the nursing home everyone could talk to. When putting roommates with him I tried to find someone that Rick as an officer could relate to. He was such a help to those who were in their last days on earth. He comforted the families. His last roommate he work hard with to help him over come his disabilities and gave him the encouragement to continue to live in community. that was his purpose in life. Helping others and that continue all his life. May God grant you strength. He will be missed. God Bless
