“ Your mother was a real blessing to so many, many people. My memories go back to the house on Rt. 67, where (after I walked up from our house on Stiles Road) Patty and I would play and Mary Francis would share her Victrola with us. It doesn't seem that long ago and yet it is a lifetime. Many dynamics changed all of our lives over the years and your Mother was always there with a smile and a caring, kkind word. She left a beautiful legacy. I trust she is now with the Lord and at peace.
