“ I knew I had lucked out as far as mothers-in-law were concerned when shortly after Gene and I were engaged, Mom said that if anything happened between Gene and me I was the one who could come home to stay. For over sixty years I have always felt at home with Mom. Besides that she and I were great partners in pinochle. I love you and miss you, Mom! Dori

“ What a beautiful soul heaven is receiving. She was such a peaceful, loving person. Whatever activity "Bus" attended she was right by his side. So many wonderful memories of Roberta throughout my life. My sympathy to the family. Jim Harrison
