“ Joyce, sorry I was not able to make it to funeral home this morning. I remember when Rosie first moved into valley in Feb 1997. I always enjoyed working with her and her Mom. Margaret's fightsy spirit was refreshing. I remember meeting you after Margaret passed and the visit we tried to plan for Rosie at your home. Memories of the shopping I did for NICE things you felt she so richly deserved. I always enjoyed just chatting with you as well about life in general. Hopefully you are still in good health. I was not able to get away today or I would have stopped in. God Bless. Margaret is happy to be reunited with Rosie.
