“ I worked with Rosie at St. Rita’s. She was a passionate nurse with compassion for her patients. She taught me a lot. Please accept my sympathy. She and I talked about her son frequently. She was very proud of him. Prayers for all her family. Sharon (Fischer) Dunlap.

“ When we were young, our families would be together most Sunday afternoons with grandparents. Rosie and I were close in age and had fun times together. She always had a happy disposition. Sorry for your loss.
