“ It was such a blessing and an honor to know Ruth Own and have her in my life. I cannot recall a time Ruth was not smiling and happy to see her family. She was such a kind and gentle woman... I wish to express my sincere condolences to her family as a whole. Unfortunately I will not be able to pay my respects to her and her family. Just know you all will be in my thoughts and prayers. Rejoice in knowing, without a shadow of a doubt, she is with our Lord and savior Jesus Christ. She is no longer in pain and free of her failing body and is dancing once again with her beloved husband. May God ease the pain of your loss and fill your hearts with wonderful memories of this great woman.
