“ I am sorry to hear of Sharon's passing. I worked with Sharon for many years at Wilson. She was always fun and had a good attitude. Coworkers like her made workdays easier. Shirley Allen

“ We first met Jerry and Sharon when we were paired together to fix a meal for a church retreat many years ago. Gotta say we were a bit out of our comfort zone to help with a meal for a large group. We met at the Aselages to plan and they were both so friendly, inviting and easy to talk with. Meal turned out wonderful and we had fun doing it. From that time on, it was as if we had known them for a long time. Loved It when we'd run into them somewhere, both were always so friendly, even when you knew Sharon had to be struggling with her cancer. Sharon was a beautiful soul and will be missed by many!!

“ Prayers and hugs are being sent to each of you. Thru the years you mom always was so joyful and happy with each of you. She always had so many good things to say about you kids and the grandchildren. She loved going to your games, goat shows and planning the Christmas Party. Be reassured that she will be sending each of you her love from above (as we all know she is in heaven).

“ Sharon was a beautiful woman inside and out. Always sharing her time and baked goodies with family and friends. I am honored to have known this wonderful mother, wife, mother in law and grandmother to so many grandchildren. She will be remembered lovingly and she will live in our hearts always. May she rest in peace!
