“ We were saddened to learn of Shirley's passing, and we want to express how much she and your family have meant to us through the years. We considered your family more than customers; we counted you as friends. We do not miss the flower shop much except for the people whose lives touched us so richly. Please know we are thinking of each of you at this sad time. One thing we know for sure.....she loved her family above all else, and we know you will miss her beyond words.
