“ Lots of memories from the 1990's as Tom Hark Sr. began his appraisal career with RPA as a staff appraiser. We spent countless hours and late nights (lots of pizza) completing appraisal assignments but it was a fun time and Tom always had a joke. He went on to manage the Dayton Branch and also assisted with the Toledo Branch for the firm. Eventually he stuck out on his own and we have missed him ever since.

RIP - Thomas L. Francis, Jr.

“ Tom was a hard worker for the St. Joseph July 4th Festival, enjoyed every minute working with him got his work done, but had a lot of fun as well. He was always at the festival meetings adding a light tone to the meetings. Enjoyed meeting his family and playing sidewalk superintendent while we shared a room in the Manor. Will keep him in my prayers - Sorry I will not make the funeral do to my medical condition. Mike Wurst
