“ Angie and Family, We are deeply saddened to hear of Tom's passing. It has been a difficult journey not only for Tom but for all of you as well. While the years have flown by and life has taken us all in different directions, the memories of yesteryear are very vivid. We remember the many good times shared when we were young and carefree. Tom had such a wonderful spirit and a large and ready smile. We hope all the memories you hold in your heart help in the days ahead as you remember your great husband, dad, grandpa, and friend. In sympathy and friendship, Dan and Cindy Kimmet
