“ Some of my best childhood memories included Toby. He felt like family. This is such a devastating loss to everyone who loved him. He showed us all how to live life to the fullest and use every opportunity to spread joy and laughter. I had planned to invite him over to catch up and I just kept putting it off. I deeply regret waiting. I will miss him. Praying for comfort and peace for all of you. I am so very sorry for your loss. Debbie Harrod Baker - Toby said " You'll always be Little Debbie to me."

“ I met Toby when he first moved to Cincinnati and we immediately became best friends. His sayings and antics always kept me laughing. He was a true friend that helped me through a very tough time in my life. I knew I could always count on him. I will miss him terribly but I will never forget him. To his family and other friends don't dwell on his tragic death but on the countless hilarious memories we all have of this beautiful man.

I am so sorry for your loss. This came as a terrible schock to us. We have many good memories of time spent with Toby. He spent a lot of time at our house with my kids, Brian, Deb and Barb Harrod. We considered him part of the family. He kept us smiling and laughing with his amazing sense of humor.
