“ As a kid growing up on the farm, I followed Uncle Venard everywhere... Even wanting to be a farmer when I grew up... My greatest memories of him: Teaching me to drive the combine with us forgetting to pull the shute up and knocking it into the side of the barn when we drove passed it... Helping to bail hay and also trying to corral cows that got loosened cornfields... and the many warm summer nights of listening to the Cincinnati Reds on the radio while having a cold beer (of course, as a kid, I only got a sip... Lol) I will love and miss Uncle Venard plus forever cherish all the memories that I have of a wonderful childhood growing up with him... Love and prayers to Aunt Cindy in this hard time... 🙏

“ Venard will forever be the 2nd father I had growing up. All the memories on the farm I had growing up will forever be cherished. He had an influence on my life without trying. Cindy, you are in my thoughts and prayers.....
