“ Dear family, I was surprised to read of Viola's death and wish to express my sympathy at your loss. I think she was my Dad's last surviving cousin. (Bill Diemunsch). I have fond memories of visiting Uncle Joe and Aunt Ede's house when we were kids and visiting with their families. Sr. Carol Diemunsch and I also visited your parents a couple of years before Sr. Carol died. Perhaps you remember me from your own sister's funeral. Until we meet again, may God replace your sorrow with peace.
