“ Our deepest sympathy to Violet's family and friends. I have been friends with Violet and her family for about as long as I can remember. Many of the great memories were of Violet, Freda, and Alice over the years. Now they are together again. Their strong faith in God was their stronghold.

Violet always had a smile for her friends and family. She always showed love to us and our family. We have many many great memories of happy times over the time of many years.

Our love and prayers go out to your family.

With Sympathy and Prayers,
Phil and Alice (Opperman) Fisher
