“ I remember as a child spending the night at Aunt Virginia's with my cousin Elizabeth. We had such fun swimming at that park. My Aunt had the sweetest laugh and smile to go a long with that laugh. I can still see her eyes glitter & face light up as she smiled.
I am so glad we stopped by and took her out for ice cream last year.
Our condolences to you both.
Much love from your cousins.

“ Remembering the laughs we shared, church dinners the last few years and our love of reading. I was able to share books and memories. Had known Virginia for perhaps 4 years. Always enjoyed seeing her hats. She will be missed. RIP my friend. Wilma
