“ Zachary even with the world against us loving one another and trying to keep us apart we didn't let that stop us from spending the years we had as two parts to a whole and even when we went our separate ways living separate lives we still managed to be friends and always remind one another that our love was never lost. I am grateful to know the side of you that very few knew! I love you and this world will never be the same without you! XOXO "BigFoot"
